

Searching for the perfect gift? Here are some places to check out. Each of these organizations use the proceeds to support charitable programming. They can help you give while also giving back.

BLUE MOON exists as a philanthropic, community-based small business. Their passion is equally shared in finding uniquely beautiful and interesting products, as it is for the charities it supports. Blue Moon is a gathering place for people interested in coming together for friendship, fun and fashion, as well as helping others in the community and beyond. Blue Moon supports a different charity each month. Past organizations include: Pathways to Independence, CHOC and Acacia Adult Day Services.

The JESSIE REES FOUNDATION is a pediatric cancer foundation inspired by the courageous fight and spirit of 12-year-old Jessie Rees. On January 5, 2012, Jessie passed away from two brain tumors. During her fight, Jessie focused on spreading hope, joy and love to other kids fighting cancer. She knew having cancer made you feel lonely and limited so she chose to spread love stuffed in her JoyJars. JoyJars have now become a recognized symbol of hope, joy and love in 150 children's hospitals and over 175 Ronald McDonald Houses. Items sold include t-shirts, wristbands, bags, beanies and throw pillows.

This holiday season, you can provide the GIFT of MOBILITY to someone with a disability living in a developing nation. Shop holiday greeting cards or e-cards to send to loved ones. The person who receives the card can then go online and designate a continent to which their wheelchair will go. They will then receive email updates from FREE WHEELCHAIR MISSION when their chair has been manufactured, shipped, is en route and received from our distribution partner. Your generosity will provide unimaginable opportunities with the precious gift of a wheelchair.
